Mission Statement

Vince Lombardi Cancer Foundation is a 42-year-old volunteer organization with the following mission:

In the same spirit of excellence that defined Vince Lombardi, Vince Lombardi Cancer Foundation raises funds for leading-edge research and compassionate care at Vince Lombardi Cancer Clinic sites throughout eastern Wisconsin. Our work helps patients, supports families and builds cancer awareness across our communities.

Bart and Cherry Starr have been honorary chairpersons for the past 41 years.

About the Award

The Vince Lombardi Award of Excellence is presented annually to a person who has made a “Hall of Fame” contribution to a sport, profession, business or community in a manner that exemplifies the highest qualities of leadership, positive influence and an appreciation of God, country, family and self – not only to the sport, profession or business involved – but to the men, women and children whose lives are enhanced by striving to emulate those standards.

The 2012 Honoree

David Robinson “The Admiral,” who played for the San Antonio Spurs, is considered one of the greatest centers in NBA history and is in the Basketball Hall of Fame.
